

In the museum you can learn about the past. There are lots of objects for you to touch and feel. There are also lots of staff there so you can ask questions. We have been on lots of school trips here.

In the library you can borrow books for free.

This is our shopping centre called the Civic Centre. It has lots of different shops like B&M, post office, bakery, bank and a chemist. You can get almost everything you need from the Civic Centre.

This is our school called Coomb Briggs. There are five other schools in Immingham too. In our school there are boys and girls. You start school when you are 4 years old and you leave this school at 11 years old to go to a secondary school. In our school we have to wear a uniform so that everyone wears the same thing. In total we have about 190 pupils in the school. We go to school on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. We start school at 8:45 and finish at 3:20. We love to learn outside.

Immingham

This is Immingham a place full of joy and peace. It is a large town but some people think it is a city. We live on the edge of the country called the coast. We don't have a beach we have a docks instead.

In Immingham people live in different homes called bungalows and houses. Some houses are joined together so we call them semi-detached and terrace. Quite a few families live in flats.

Lots of people use the bus to get around the town. We do not have a train station in Immingham. If we want to get onto the train we have to drive to a small village called Habrough which is only 5 minutes away. Most people in Immingham will walk or use a car. Lots of families are lucky enough to have two cars.

This is called a cenotaph. We use it to remember people that have died in the war. We leave a poppy wreath in November.

This is Immingham Docks. Lots of things are brought into the country through the docks and lots of things leave the docks too to go to other countries. Immingham has lots of oil refineries.

This is a row of shops in Immingham on Pelham Road. There is a butcher where you can get fresh meat to eat. There is also a florist where you can get fresh flowers. There is also a supermarket so you can get your weekly shop. The road gets busy so we have to use the zebra crossing to keep safe.

This is one of the largest churches in Immingham. People get married or christened here. We visit here for school trips to sing.